DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 5-12 are pending in the instant application.

Response to Amendment

2. Applicants' Amendment and Response of June 25, 2007, has been reviewed by the Examiner. Accordingly, claims 1-4, 13 and 14 have been cancelled, and claim 5 has been amended.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claim 13 previously rejected as not being enabled. Applicants have cancelled the claim, rendering the enablement rejection moot, therefore the rejection is withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. The Examiner had indicated in the previous Office Action that claims 5-12 appeared allowable over the prior art. In view of the cancellation of the rejected and withdrawn claims, the Application is now in condition for allowance.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

5. In view of Applicant's amendatory changes and cancellations, claims 5-12 are allowable over the prior art, as newly renumbered claims 1-8. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

This invention relates to novel cyclohexyl-sulfone derivatives and their pharmaceutical compositions. The allowable compounds are limited to compounds according to formula II of renumbered claim 1. Certain sulfone compounds are known in the art as having the ability to inhibit the formation or release of A β (useful for treating diseases such as AD), however the aspect of preparing the instant claimed cyclohexyl-sulfone compounds, which are able to release

NO as well as inhibit γ -secretase, is novel and unobvious. After a thorough search, the closest of prior art, U.S. Pub. No. 2003/0114496, was found to teach similar cyclohexyl sulfone derivatives as γ -secretase inhibitors. However the U.S. publication fails to teach or render obvious the instant claimed compounds according to formula (II), and does not fairly suggest the same methods of using the instant claimed compounds.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
